

HALO NEWS

June 2016

Welcome to the first HALO Newsletter

Keeping you up to date with all the Heritage and Learning news at All Saints Kingston.

This month we are busy prepping for the August Activity Days (4/11/18/25 August) and working hard on the HLF monitoring reports for this quarter.

Coronation Workshop

A fantastic team of heritage volunteers are working to create some Saxon costumes for students to wear as part of our coronation workshop. As well as some gorgeous Saxon tunics we are creating swords, shields, cloaks and headdresses! If you are interested in helping create some spectacular Saxon costumes email HALO for more information.

Gravestone Database

The HALO has created a database of all monuments and gravestones in the church, assimilating the in-depth previous lists created by Mike Bangham and Richard Rider. There is now a list of the current gravestones locations, names and inscriptions with accompanying floorplans and images. If you would like more information or are interested in doing some research, contact the HALO.

Volunteers Needed!

We are in desperate need of volunteers to join our team of heritage volunteers and assist with family activity days, tours, school visits, research and photography. If you are interested in getting involved, please email heritage@allsaintskingston.co.uk for more information.

Social Media

You may have already noticed, but we are working hard to raise the ASK profile on social media. We have our own Twitter account @HeritageASK, as well as the main church account @AllSaintsK. We are trying to get more likes on the All Saints Church Kingston Facebook page, so please take a minute to like our page or follow us on Twitter if you can! ASK is also active on Pinterest, which is a great visual networking platform, so if you haven't had a look before, why not check us out?

Heritage Handbook

We have just launched the new heritage handbook for all volunteers. This guide gives a brief, bitesize history to the church with added background information. A reference copy is available in the verger's cupboard and in the vestry office. If you have any questions or are interested in being emailed a copy, please email heritage@allsaintskingston.co.uk.
