

The Parish Church of All Saints

19 August 2018 - 12th Sunday after Trinity

You are very welcome to All Saints this morning for this Eucharist (Holy Communion). Children are very welcome here and, if they want to, they can take part in the children's activities that happen at the east end of the church and in the choir vestry.

Children leave after the first hymn and return for the Communion.

Today we sing the mass setting, number 541 in the hymn book, starting at the Gloria.

The service starts on page 1 of the green booklet.

The Opening Hymn is 239.

We sing the Gloria (the words are on page 17).

We say together the collect – the special prayer for this Sunday.

Almighty and everlasting God,
you are always more ready to hear
than we to pray
and to give more than either we desire
or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance
of your mercy,
forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid
and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask
but through the merits and mediation
of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen

The reading from the Old Testament today is Proverbs 9:1-6.

We stand for the Cantor to lead us in singing from Psalm 63 (number 533 in the hymn book). The congregational refrain is:

The New Testament reading today is Ephesians 5:15-20.

The Gradual Hymn is 366 after which we remain standing and turn to face the centre of the church from where the Gospel is read.

Today's Gospel is John 6:51-58 – the text is on the back of this pew sheet.

The preacher today is the Rev'd Sandy Cragg.

After the Peace we sing the Offertory Hymn 458
during which a collection is taken for the work of the church, and the bread and wine for the Eucharist are brought to the altar.

The service continues with the Preparation of the

This morning we will use Eucharistic Prayer G.

While the congregation comes forward to receive Holy Communion Qui manducat and Psalm 118
will be sung.

After Communion the Priest will say:

God of all mercy,
in this eucharist you have set aside our sins
and given us your healing:
grant that we who are made whole in Christ
may bring that healing to this broken world,
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

The Final Hymn is 286.

After the service, refreshments are served.
Please feel very welcome to stay and enjoy, and if you have not been to the church before, please do introduce yourself to one of the clergy or churchwardens - we'd love to meet you.

This sheet is for you to take home.

Please keep your belongings with you at all times.

NOTICES AND NEWS

Thu 23rd 11.00am-2.00pm Thumbs Up It's Thursday – Kings and Queens
Thu 23rd 12noon Cuppa with a copper

Congratulations to Tauqeer

Many of you will know Tauqeer Rasool and that he has been hoping to be given leave to remain in the UK. We heard this summer that he has been granted asylum and so wanted to celebrate with him for that after the service. Many congratulations to him and very, very many thanks to Sandy Cragg and others for supporting him so much in this journey.

Children's Workshop over the summer

Just between now and the start of September all children attending Children's Workshop must be accompanied by a parent, or someone who is willing to be responsible for them. This is because we have slightly fewer adult leaders over the summer holidays. Children, you're all welcome but please bring an adult with you!

Christian Aid Quiz

Join an All Saints team on Saturday, 8 September! Quiz starts 7pm at the United Reformed Church and includes a light supper. Proceeds will be sent to the Christian Aid Harvest Appeal which is being match-funded 4:1 by the EU - so your £10 entry will potentially be worth £50 to life-changing projects in Burkina Faso, Honduras, Malawi and Ethiopia. Ask Keith Long or Ian Williamson for more details.

Nightshelter workers needed

KCAH will be running the Night Shelter from September 2018 to March 2019 which is an exciting as well as daunting challenge. They have employed a fantastic new Night Shelter Coordinator and are now looking for FOUR (paid) Night Shelter Workers to join the team working alongside her. Details on the KCAH website: KCAH.org.uk/job-vacancies

Have a cuppa with a Copper!

In the café on the 23rd August 12-1pm our local Police Officer will be here to chat about any concerns or questions you might have about policing in the Town.

Football's coming here!

Are you Primary School aged and wanting to play five aside football? Then we'd like to start a regular get together here in the churchyard to play some footie for fun. Let Jonathan know if you're interested.

Thumbs up it's Thursdays

Will be back again offering interest and entertainment to people in the Town. We play our part by having Heritage Events on Thursday the 26th July and then every Thursday in August. The Heritage team would love a couple more volunteers if you have any spare time on those days. Anyone who is a teenager and older can offer to help. Let the office know if you can.

Stewarding at events

If you think that you would be willing to represent us at evening events – for which you get free entry to the event, or any of the other events that go on at All Saints – then please let Jonathan or John Dewhurst know. In particular, we are needing people willing to steward at Banquet Record events which may (only may, mind...) appeal to the younger among us.

Environmental awareness

At the PCC we discussed Ian Christie's visit and how we might tackle the environmental challenges of our day. We resolved to think further about it and to use the sub-committee we have for doing so. If you'd like to join them and be part of the conversation that we hope will lead to some action please see Jonathan or contact the office.

A Welcome Evening in September

On the 26th September (not 24th as previously advertised) from 7.30-9.30 we are having an open house to invite any newcomers to Kingston who may want to get to know some people. Please do spread the word to anyone you know who has recently arrived in the Town and it would be lovely if a few of us could be there to do the welcoming. If you'd like to join us please see Jonathan.

Helping with Workshop

The great work with our children quite desperately needs a few more adults to ensure that there are two adults in all sessions. These don't need to be parents of children who attend but can be anyone willing to help as frequently or infrequently as you like. Please see Jonathan, Susannah, Eithne or Karen if you think you can help.

THE READINGS

Proverbs 9:1-6

Wisdom has built her house,
she has hewn her seven pillars.
She has slaughtered her animals, she has mixed
her wine,
she has also set her table.
She has sent out her servant-girls, she calls
from the highest places in the town,
'You that are simple, turn in here!'
To those without sense she says,
'Come, eat of my bread
and drink of the wine I have mixed.
Lay aside immaturity, and live,
and walk in the way of insight.'

Ephesians 5:15-20

Brothers and sisters, be careful then how you live, not as unwise people but as wise, making the most of the time, because the days are evil. So do not be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is. Do not get drunk with wine, for that is debauchery; but be filled with the Spirit, as you sing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, singing and making melody to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks to God the Father at all times and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

John 6:51-58

Jesus said to the crowd: 'I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live for ever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh.'
The Jews then disputed among themselves, saying, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?' So Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood have eternal life, and I will raise them up on the last day; for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink.
Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live for ever.'
