

The Parish Church of All Saints

16 September 2018 -16th Sunday after Trinity

You are very welcome to All Saints this morning for this sung Eucharist (Holy Communion). Children are very welcome here and, if they want to, they can take part in the children's activities that happen at the east end of the church and in the choir vestry.

Children leave after coming to the altar for a prayer at the end of the first hymn and return for the Communion.

At certain times in the service the choir sings on behalf of the congregation; this allows us to think more deeply about our relationship with God in our lives, through meditating on the words and music chosen for the day. The words that they sing can be found either in the service book or later in this sheet. Today the mass setting is Kleine Orgelmesse (Haydn)

The service starts on page 1 of the green booklet.

The Opening Hymn is 255.

We say together the collect – the special prayer for this Sunday.

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

The reading from the Old Testament today is Isaiah 50:4-9a; which is then followed by the reading from the New Testament, James 3:1-12.

The Gradual Hymn is 420 after which we remain standing and turn to face the centre of the church from where the Gospel is read.

Today's Gospel is Mark 8:27-end- the text is on the back of this pew sheet.

Our preacher today is the Rector, Jonathan Wilkes.

After the sermon we stand together to say the Creed, which begins on page 4 of the green booklet.

After the Peace we sing the Offertory Hymn 439 during which a collection is taken for the work of the church, and the bread and wine for the Eucharist are brought to the altar.

The service continues with the Preparation of the Table on page 7 of the green booklet.

This morning we will use Eucharistic Prayer A.

While the congregation comes forward to receive Holy Communion the choir will sing the motet Ave verum (Mozart)

*Ave verum Corpus,
natum
De Maria Virgine,
Vere passum,
immolatum
In cruce pro homine:*

*Hail the true body,
born
of the Virgin Mary:
You who truly suffered
and were sacrificed
on the cross for the sake of man:*

*Cuius latum
perforatum Unda fluxit et sanguine,
Esto nobis
praegustatum
In mortis examine.*

*From whose pierced side
flowed water and blood:
Be a foretaste for us
in the trial of death.*

After Communion the Priest will say:

Lord of creation,
whose glory is around and within us:
open our eyes to your wonders,
that we may serve you with reverence
and know your peace at our lives' end,
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

The Final Hymn is 443.

After the service, refreshments are served.
Please feel very welcome to stay and enjoy, and if you have not been to the church before, please do introduce yourself to one of the clergy or churchwardens - we'd love to meet you.

This sheet is for you to take home.

Please keep your belongings with you at all time

Music with Soul - 19th September 7pm

Our monthly service for the spiritual but not religious using contemporary music. This month focusing on "Embracing Difference". All welcome.

"We sit together"

A chance to meet local people from different belief backgrounds – Theme: "What do you want most out of life?" Thursday 20th September at St John the Baptist Church, Kingston Vale.

Nightshelter workers needed

KCAH will be running the Night Shelter from September 2018 to March 2019 which is an exciting as well as daunting challenge. They have employed a fantastic new Night Shelter Coordinator and are now looking for FOUR (paid) Night Shelter Workers to join the team working alongside her. Details on the KCAH website: KCAH.org.uk/job-vacancies

Christian Aid. All Saints members made a good showing in URC's Quiz and more than £735 was raised - worth over £3,700 when the EU's 4:1 match-funding is added. The Richmond Riverside Walk on Saturday 29 September gives another opportunity to raise funds for the same CA Harvest Appeal for projects in Burkina Faso, Honduras, Malawi and Ethiopia. Ask Keith Long or Ian Williamson for more details, or to make an individual donation.

Rev Mark Stafford

Many of you will have met Mark in our congregation. Mark has worked as a Social Worker for the last ten years or so but, before that, worked as a Priest in the Diocese of Southwell and Nottingham. Recently, he's decided to return to ordained ministry and the Bishop has given him permission to officiate at All Saints about which we are delighted. He will be preaching and leading services before long. Welcome Mark!

A Welcome Evening in September

On the 26th September (not 24th as previously advertised) from 7.30-9.30. Spread the word to those who are new in the area and come and be part of the team to welcome them.

Shop early for your shoebox!

Forms for this year's Link to Hope shoebox appeal are now available in church, so if you'd like to start filling a box with small gifts for a needy family or older person in Eastern Europe, please take a form. This will give you an up-to-date list of the items needed and advice on the exact type of box to use: it's very important to keep to the instructions in order to avoid complications during the packing and transport of the boxes. If you have any questions, please ask David Robinson. Filled and wrapped boxes need to be brought into church by 1 November.

ASK Topical Lunch, Thursday 20 September.

Sergeant LEN JACKSON, Teddington Police talks about SCAMS AND HOW TO AVOID THEM. You're more likely to lose money through your computer than be robbed in the street. Sgt Jackson gives you the low down on what to watch out for. Lunch at the East End Café from 12:00 pm – or bring sandwiches. Starts at 1:00 pm. Finishes 1:45 pm

Harvest Festival - October 14th

We will celebrate Harvest on the 14th October at the Family Service and as usual invite as many donations of certain foods to be given to the Kingston Foodbank. This year they urgently need long life milk, instant mash potato, tinned custard and rice pudding, rice, biscuits (mainly sweet) and sponge puddings. They still need some tinned fish, fruit juice, fruit squash, tinned spaghetti, jams and spreads. They have plenty of pasta and noodles, meat, baked beans, soup, tinned vegetables and fruit, tinned tomatoes, pasta sauce, tea and coffee, cereal. As always, we do have to be careful that items given to the Foodbank are within their use by/best before dates. Please do give what you can, either on the day or in the week before

Hymn Fest at the United Reformed Church

A chance to sing hymns old and new at an event in the URC, Eden St on 6th October at 10am to 1pm.

THE READINGS

Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backwards. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting.

The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty? All of them will wear out like a garment; the moth will eat them up.

James 3:1-12.

Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers and sisters, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. For all of us make many mistakes. Anyone who makes no mistakes in speaking is perfect, able to keep the whole body in check with a bridle. If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide their whole bodies. Or look at ships: though they are so large that it takes strong winds to drive them, yet they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great exploits. How great a forest is set ablaze by a small fire! And the tongue is a fire. The tongue is placed among our members as a world of iniquity; it stains the whole body, sets on fire the cycle of nature, and is itself set on fire by hell. For every species of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by the human species, but no one can tame the tongue—a restless evil, full of deadly poison. With it we bless the Lord and Father, and with it we curse those who are made in the likeness of God. From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers and sisters, this ought not to be so. Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and brackish water? Can a fig tree, my brothers and sisters, yield olives, or a grapevine figs? No more can salt water yield fresh.

Mark 8:27-end

Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, 'Who do people say that I am?' And they answered him, 'John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.' He asked them, 'But who do you say that I am?' Peter answered him, 'You are the Messiah.' And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, 'Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.'

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, 'If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.'
