

Nothing brings more happiness than seeing your act of kindness being utilised in the world. This is what participating in Christian Aid Week is all about." Christian Aid's theme for this year is 7 Days which we are turning into 70,000 Steps for our Clergy,

Ways for you to get involved

10th May 7pm Christian Aid Quiz at the United Reformed Church, Kingston £10 per person cash or card at event. Light snacks, paying bar and cash raffle

11th-18th May – Drop Off Only Envelopes and Door to Door Collections

11th-18th May – Clergy to Walk 10,000 steps per day carrying a spade or fork, as a reminder of the active work Christian Aid does in providing many tools (financial and material) to transform the lives of the poor. This year they highlight the plight of the poor in Burundi.

16th May 5-9pm Station Collection – at Kingston Station,

18th May 12:45pm Dancing and Street Collection – Clarence Street, starting at Dancing 70,000 Steps 13:00-13:30 - we need as many people as possible from each church/organisation to join together to create a joyous scene – singing and dancing, whilst others shake a bucket to collect for Christian Aid.

Sunday 19th May – at All Saints Church, Kingston at 6pm Joint Service for Christian Aid
